

We have been using your Crystal Blue Structured Water units on our irrigated corn and soybeans for some time now. Although we are not yet set up to do detailed field trials, what I can report is that the root systems of the plants are much larger and healthier. Same with the crops themselves with substantial increases not only in quantity of yield, but the quality of the product is much better.

Dale Stahl - 1/6/2017
Plate, South Dakota, Hutterite colony

